Activity Report Palkhi Sohala

As a part of Extra-curricular activity for B.A./B.Com/BBA (CA) Student an event was conducted in the College for which the details are as follows:

Name of Event: "Palkhi Sohala".

Date: 24/06/2021

Time: 09.00 am Onwards

Event Coordinator: Dr.Pandurang Misal

A group of warkaris called as dindis go singing and dancing to the holy town of Pandharpur, a small town in the district of Solapur. The Palkhi starts in the month of June (Jyeshth) and continues for 22 days. Every year on the eleventh day of the first half of the month of Ashadh, the Palkhi reaches Pandharpur. Every saint, right from Sant Dnyaneshwar to Sant Tukaram was following the wari tradition. The change in the dindi-wari system was introduced by the youngest son of Sant Tukaram in 1685. He introduced Palkhi and put the silver padukas (footsteps) of Tukaram in the Palkhi and proceeded with his dindi to Alandi where he put the padukas of Dnyaneshwar in the same Palkhi. But in 1830, this tradition of twin Palkhi was broken up due to some disputes and since then two separate Palkhis – Tukaram Palkhi from Dehu and the Dnyaneshwar Palkhi from Alandi. Both the Palkhis meet in Pune for a brief halt and then diverge at Hadapsar to meet again at Wakhri, a village nearby to Pandharpur.

We at Sharadchandra Pawar Arts & Commerce College, Alandi, Dudulgaon took this wonderful opportunity of presenting the replica of this traditional Palkhi in our own College premises. The sounds of "veena" and "pakhawaj" filled the whole College when students came to College dressed up as warkaries carrying saffron flags, palkhi of Sant Tukaram and Tulsi saplings in 'tulshivrundavans'.

This event was brought into existence to sensitize the young minds with traditional integrity amongst each other. The teachers popped in and made realistic props to give the event a realistic look. The soothing bhajans and songs mesmerized the whole School campus. The participation of all student in this Palkhi event gave a message of social awareness and a feeling of oneness.
